Review/ Approval of Minutes

Minutes were approved as corrected prior to meeting.

Treasurer's Report:

The total before the meeting was $8,010.18. The treasurer's report was accepted.

Concert

Ralph has tickets to be picked up. He needs workers to collect ticket money and tickets and raffle money. He would like someone to count number of people attending the concert. The rehearsal will be Saturday from 10-12. There was discussion of microphones – some will need one, some will not. It was asked if the risers will be up during the rehearsal. Ralph will check on that as well as microphone on the piano.

It was decided to pay the drummer $50, the pianist $750 and Ronda $1250.

We will have 58 singing.

Finance

Jim said that $670 dollars had been taken in on raffle tickets so far.

Social:

There will be lunch at Austin's conference center after the rehearsal on Saturday.

Publicity

Rachel will be on the radio station on Wednesday talking about the concert.

Presidents' Report

Elections are tonight. We need an alto section leader too. The new officers will change after the concert.

Adjourn: The meeting was adjourned at 7:18.

Respectfully submitted

Jean Plondke, Secretary
