Minutes were approved.

Vice President's Report:

Ralph is working on the banner.

Membership Report:

Dave says that the membership list is up to date except for 3 people missing last week.

Treasurer's Report:

Mary says that she still needs money for 5 shirts. She has received $770 for dues, and $125 from a patron. The balance of the treasury is $9,174.

Social Committee Report:

Rhonda said that she thought that the introductory games went well. She asked for more information on how social we want to be and should we have an "afterglow" after the first concert in the spring?

Fund Raising:

Melody reports that Tamara says that Steele jewelry has agreed to provide a $500 gift card for a raffle this spring.

Mary said that Ann is not doing well. After discussion and voting, we decided to get a $50 gift card to Publix and a plant for her.

It was noted that the bass section is larger this spring.

Dave announced that he will miss the spring concert.

President's Report:

Jim asked about posters and the banner. He wanted to know which means are the best at bringing people in. He suggested a survey to determine how attendees to the concert heard about the concert.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:12 pm.

Respectfully submitted

Jean Plondke, Secretary
